

It Starts in the Heart

© Jack Hartmann and Becky Bailey

It starts in the heart	(cross hands over heart)
Way down in the soul	(push hands down toward the floor)
It starts in the heart	(cross hands over heart)

Verse 1:

Brick by brick and stone by stone	(tap one fist on top of other repeatedly)
We all find a way to build a wall	(build pretend wall palms facing out)
And all we get is more alone	(continue building wall)
Can you see the stones have got to fall	(bring both hands slowly down to sides)
We can let them stand but then nobody wins	(crisscross hands back and forth index fingers pointing up)
We can work together and find somewhere to begin.

Chorus:

It starts in the heart	(cross hands over heart)
Way down in the soul	(push hands down toward the floor)
That's the only place the seeds of love can grow	(extend hands overhead and out)
Then you realize that we're not that far apart	(extend arms out to the side)
We can build a bridge	(hold hands around the circle)
It starts in the heart	(cross hands over heart)
Way down in the soul	(push hands down toward the floor)
It starts in the heart	(cross hands over heart)

Verse 2:

I look at you and you look at me	(face partner; point hands at partner and then self)
Can you see that I am on your side	(lean against each other)
And though we sometimes disagree
We can find a way to make it by	(lock elbows around the circle)
Though the road is long	(make snake-like motion forward with hands together)
And isn't always clear	(place both hands in front of face)
I know there's some way	(touch index finger to side of head as if thinking)
To get there from here	(point down to the spot where you are standing)

Repeat chorus.

My Chance to Dance

Ronno

Lyrics by Judy Millar, Liz Jones-Twomey, Ron Hiller/RONNO, Pam Schiller
© Song Support SOCAN

I'm a little seed, sleeping in the ground
Winter winds are blowing all around.
But I'm safe and warm here, curled up tight
And I dream that someday, I just might Get my chance, get my chance to dance!

Chorus:

I'll poke my head up high
Point my leaves at the sun
I'll twirl 'round and 'round
And have so much fun!
I'll bend down low
When the warm winds blow
I'll dance and dance
And grow and grow.
It's my chance
It's my chance to dance!

I'm a little plant, growing in the ground
Springtime rain is falling all around
I can hold my head up! Look at me!
I've got soil in my eyes, but I can see.
I'm gonna get my chance, get my chance to dance!

Repeat chorus.

I'm a healthy plant, swaying here in place
Summer sunshine shining on my face!
I am growing strong as I can be
Won't you come into the field and dance with me?
You see, now's my chance, now's my chance to dance!

Repeat chorus.

I'm a happy plant and I'm proud I grew
Into something that's very good for you!
Now I've got a secret inside of me
I've been growing seeds. Just look and see!
Soon they'll get their chance, get their chance to dance!

Repeat chorus.

Sing a Summer Song

Charity Kahn

© 2016 "Charity and the JAMband" Earth

Sing a summer song, sing it for the earth.
Sing it for the flowers and sing it for the dirt.
Sing it for the singing birds and for the green trees.
Sing it for the wiggly worms and for the honey bees.

Chorus:

Sing a summer song, sing a summer song.
Sing a summer song for you and me.
Sing a summer song, sing a summer song.
The way we love the world is everything.

Sing it for the long days and for the tiny nights.
Sing it for the June bugs and for the fireflies.
Sing it for the gardens and sing it for the rain.
Sing it for the sunshine. We love them both the same.

Repeat chorus.

Summer is a-comin'
And it's right around the corner.
You can see it getting brighter.
You can feel it getting warmer.
You can smell it in the growing things
You can hear it when the animals speak
Taste it in the hanging fruit
Run through it in your bare feet
your bare feet
your bare, bare feet.

Sing it for the mountains and sing it for the sea.
Sing it for the rivers and for the valleys.
Sing it for the animals and sing it for the plants.
Sing it for the people and how they love to dance.

Repeat chorus.

Water can in hand, pour it out like showers.
Let's pretend it's rain watering the flowers.

Chorus:

Rain from our water can.
Rain, touch it with your hand.
It's raining, raining, raining, raining, raining. It's raining, raining.
It's raining, raining, raining, raining, raining. It's raining, raining.

Pour it very gently, hear the pitter patter.
Watch the many sprinkles hardly even splatter.
Repeat chorus.

Pretend the sky is grey now. It's getting very cloudy.
The rain is falling faster. Hear the sprinkles loudly.
Repeat chorus.

Pretend the storm has past now. The sky is turning clear.
Very lightly sprinkling is all that you will hear.

Rain, touch it with your hands.

It's fall again, leaves are falling on you.

And if by chance you catch one you should sing this, too.
