

Paragraph

A lemon is a bitter, VERY sour fruit. It is bright yellow, oval-shaped, and grown in tropical areas. Most fruit is re-grown there because of the hot, tropical temperatures. It is an edible fruit that is used in many drinks, but you have to remove the peel and seeds so that you can squeeze the juice out of it. When the juice squirts it, it is a sticky MESS! In conclusion though, lemons are very tasty!